

1st International One Health Congress
Human Health, Animal Health, the Environment and Global Survival
Melbourne Convention Centre
Victoria, Australia
14-16 February 2011

INVITATION to the European Union hosted breakfast session

On the occasion of the 1st International One Health Congress the European Union is pleased to invite delegates to a breakfast session on

“One Health and the forgotten diseases”

to be held on Tuesday the 15th of February 2011 (7:00am – 8.15am)
in room 218 of the Melbourne Convention Centre

Invited speaker and chair:

Dr Alain Vandersmissen

Coordinator Pandemic Readiness, One Health, Emerging Diseases EUROPEAN EXTERNAL ACTION SERVICE

“From the Global Response to Avian Influenza towards One Health: Windows of Opportunity”

Scientific speakers:

Dr. Sue Welburn

Director, Edinburgh Global Health Academy & Professor of Medical and Veterinary Molecular Epidemiology
“One Health beyond the confines of Emerging Disease:
A Public Health template for dealing with the forgotten diseases?”

Dr. Alexandra Shaw

Economist, Consultant, Integrated Control of Neglected Zoonoses (ICONZ) Project
“The forgotten zoonoses: overlooked, under-reported but cost-effective to control”

Please register by email at the following address:

breakfast@methods.com.gr

Registration is free and will be limited to 100 attendees, available on a “first come, first served” basis.

